Hopkins Men

Step Into Control of the Convention,

Despite Midnight Agreement of Hearst-Harrisonites to Dump Him.

Democrats of Illinois Promise to Duplicate in Some Manner the Late World-Beating Republican Convention.

Springfield, Ill., June 14.—The plan of John P. Hopkins, of Chicago, and the majority of the members of the state central committee to make Frank P. Quinn, of Peoria, temporary chairman of the democratic convention which meets today, has forced the Hearst and Harrison factions of the party into an alliance, defensive and offensive. The deal between Harrison and Hearst was arranged last night but the fact that it has been made was guarded with the greatest secrecy. There were six men representing Harrison and Hearst in the conference and each man pledged himself to say nothing of the compact until after the adjournment of the sub-committee of the central body. It was feared that if the Hopkins men knew of the arrangement they would off set it by unseating a sufficient number of Harrison and Hearst men to leave them in full control of the convention. The deal is advantageous to the Harrison people, for while they have about one-fifth as many delegates as Hearst, they are to have one half the delegates at large to the national convention and an equal voice in naming the candidates for the state officers provided the alliance is able to control the convention, as its leaders express themselves confident of doing. Harrison people on their part, have agreed to vote for an instructed Hearst delegation and to secure the withdrawal of Chairman James R. Williams from the presidential race. Edward Lahliff, of Chicago, who was one of the Harrison men present, at last night's conference, pledged himself to the fact that Mr. Williams would pull out, if requested to do so by his backers from Chicago. The great interest still continues in the fight for party control and the candidates for office are in the background so completely that no attention is paid to them. George E. Jackson, of Chicago, has come out as a candi-

ANOTHER DELAY.

Tangier, June 14.—A courier from Raisuli, the bandit chief who kidnapped Messrs. Pedicaris and Varley, arrived here during the night. U. S. Consul General Gummere and the British minister subsequently visited Mohammed El Torres, the representative of the Sultan of Morocco, to discuss the contents of Raisuli's message. The distance of Raisuli's headquarters makes the negotiations drag. It is now thought possible that the captives will not be released this week.

On Water Works Extension

To Be Started.

Infirmary Site Adopted by the Board

And the Plans of the Board Are Approved by the City Council.

Present Appropriation Will Not, However Be Sufficient to Complete the Improvement as Contemplated.

The city council met in adjourned session at 8 o'clock last night. President Newson occupied the chair and all members responded to roll call.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

The street committee recommended passage of ordinance annexing that portion of Kunneke's west side addition now outside the city limits, and that prayer of petition to establish grade on Baxter street, between Fauror avenue and Spencerville road be granted. The report was adopted.

Sewer committee recommended construction of a sewer in Main street between Second and Fourth streets.

The finance committee recommended passage of ordinance regulating the sale of hay, firewood etc. Adopted.

The special committee appointed to investigate approximate damages that would be asked by property owners for proposed underground crossing of C. H. & D. and L. E. & W. tracks by Findlay street, reported that the owners of the abutting properties were strongly opposed to the proposed tunnel and would give no figures as to the amount of damages that would be demanded in the event that the underground crossing was undertaken. The report was received and the committee—Mayor Robb and F. A. Holland—was dismissed.

The Board of Public Services submitted the following report relative to the water works extension project:

Lima, Ohio, June 13, 1904.
To the Honorable, the City Council, Gentlemen:

We, the undersigned members of the Board of Public Service, beg leave to report to your honorable body, that, having made favorable negotiations for the infirmary lands and all of the rights at the infirmary site for the proposed reservoir, we respectfully recommend that the council adopt this site and authorize the board to proceed at once with the improvement.

From the best information we can obtain, the entire cost of the improvement will be approximately $175,000— which will make it necessary for the council to make provision for an additional amount of $25,000—otherwise we will proceed to advertise the entire work, and afterwards make the award only for such items as the present appropriation will cover. With the approval of the council we will proceed at once to close up the deal for the lands and oil rights, and advertise for bids, and use every endeavor to complete the work this season, which we believe can be done by diligent effort.

Respectfully submitted,
J. H. M. MORRISON,
JOHN THOMAS,
F. A. HOLLAND,

Directors of Public Service.

The solicitor, in response to Mr. Smith, stated that the council could not issue bonds for the additional $25,000 unless the proposition was submitted to and approved by the vote of the electors of the city.

Mr. Newson said he was in favor of adopting a resolution authorizing the board to proceed with the improvement on the lines contemplated in its report and then submit the proposition of securing the additional sum necessary to carry the project to completion, to the people of the city.

A lengthy discussion of the report of the board brought the council to the conclusion that the recommendations of the board should be approved and the provision of additional funds be taken care of at such time as the necessity may arise. A resolution authorizing the board to proceed with the work on the lines laid down by the report was adopted by a full yeas vote, under a suspension of the rule requiring three separate readings on three separate days.

Ordinance to regulate the measuring of firewood the sale of the same and regulating the weighing and sale of hay was given its second reading and was referred to a special committee on motion by Mr. Smith, to provide a plan providing for the weighing of hay sold by retail dealers and to designate the place to be used as such markets. The committee named by the chair, consists of Mr. Smith, Mr. Fletcher and Mr. Napier.

THE IDLER.

Van Wert's largely advertised 4th of July celebration has been declared off because of a city ordinance which prevents the shooting of certain kinds of explosives customarily used in making noise on that day, and for the additional good reason that Lima is going to have the biggest celebration ever held in Northwestern Ohio.

He also suggests that there be a contest to determine the best-looking man on the train. In this way he says the women would have a chance to return the compliment. It is at least a bid for the pretty women of the country to get busy and take a ride on the Erie's first train from New York to St. Louis. The Erie has also made an offer of $100 for the person selecting the best name for the flyer.

VOTE

Of the People to Decide It.

Money Needed

To Replace the West Ward Building

And the Board Asks Permission to Sell $50,000 Worth of Bonds.

Special Election Will Be Held and the Board Will at Least Be Able to Shift the Responsibility.

The board of education decided at the meeting last night to let the voters and taxpayers of Lima decide whether or not the old west ward building shall stand another year, or give way to a new one. As noted in the Times-Democrat, Saturday, City Solicitor Bentley has decided that the only way the necessary money can be secured is by issuing bonds, and this cannot be done without the consent of the people. Another bond issue is naturally distasteful, considering the attitude to which the taxes have climbed but the board of education is forced into a position which at least permits them to shelve responsibility. If the bond issue would carry the old building could be replaced. If it should fail, the building will be closed and left to stand in its present dilapidated condition until the voters change their minds and permit a sale of the bonds that are necessary.

Several of the members have already gone on record that they will not permit, by their vote, the use of the building another year, and since the state inspector has declared he will not give his permission to have the building used again, there is but one alternative—and that is the establishing of colonies, scattered among the houses in the west end. Such a situation would be unsatisfactory to teachers, parents and pupils but the board's hands are tied and it is up to the taxpayers to either make the knot tighter or break the shackles.

The question of submitting the proposition was discussed at length. Spiker remarked that there was no use opening old sores, but the people will tell you why the proposition didn't carry after the votes are counted. Dr. Terwilliger and Mr. Klatte stated that they believed the people in every part of the city had the interest of the schools at heart and could not help but realize the great need of relief at this time. The south, north or east would have no reason, other than a desire to keep down the taxes, in antagonizing the proposition, and no one could deny the necessity of it. "The board at any rate," said Dr. Bates, "could better afford to spend the money for a special election and let the voters bear the responsibility, than to lay out five or six thousand dollars in repairing an old rattle trap of a building which must eventually be discarded."

Dr. Blattenberg prepared a resolution providing for a special election and placed the amount of bonds desired to be sold at $50,000. The motion was seconded by Mr. McClain, and when the ayes and nays were called for, all of the ten members present voted in favor of it. The clerk was authorized to have the necessary legal notice drawn up and published, and within the next few weeks the question will be submitted to a popular vote.

WEATHER.

Washington, June 14.—For Ohio: Fair tonight, cooler in northwest portion; Wednesday, fair, cooler in northeast portion.

The taking of Attorney General Knox from the office of Attorney General and his appointment as United States senator, was a smoothly engineered move by Roosevelt. In three years Knox, as head of the legal department of the government had found one trust he could partially put out of business. This marked him as too aggressive, and to appease the money interests, and secure campaign wallow, it was necessary to let Philander out, and out he went with the aid of Pennypacker.

WYANDOT

Indians Arrived in the City
This Afternoon.

EnRoute to Firemen's Convention.
Which Will Be Held at Wapak-oneta Tomorrow.

The "Wyandot Indians," Upper Sandusky's company of volunteer firemen, arrived in this city at 2:37 o'clock this afternoon, enroute to Wapakoneta where the convention of the Northwestern Ohio Volunteer Firemen's Association will be held tomorrow. The company was accompanied by a band and was met at the P. Ft. W. & C. depot by Chief Coates of the local fire department, under whose chaperonage the visitors were given a ride over the city in a chartered street car. The "Indians" will go to Wapakoneta this evening.

We do not see how medical men can tell one germ from another. To us they all look like lobsters with narrower huts on.

When you give a dollar to present to a friend, don't butt your feelings against a wall by asking him to guess: he will say 75 cents.

Gordon

Did Not Hold

Sway Over Meeting of Confederates.

His Successor Given Reception Such as South Can Give.

Patriotic Address Which Show That In Loyalty to Country None Are More Earnest Than Those Wearing Gray.

Nashville, Tenn., June 14.—The United Confederate Veterans began their 14th annual convention today and for the first time since the organization was formed, General Jno. B. Gordon, the beloved commander in chief, whose body rests in Oakland cemetery at Atlanta, Ga., did not preside.
That his presence was sadly missed was apparent from the frequent reference to his many years of service at the head of the organization and his brilliant war record. The tabernacle, where the convention is in progress was crowded to suffocation.

The convention was called to order by General Geo. W. Gordon, of Memphis, commanding the Tennessee division. Chaplain Jones delivered an impressive invocation. Gov. Fraizer welcomed the veterans to Tennessee, and Mayor Williams spoke.

The welcoming addresses were responded to by Lieut. Gen. Stephen D.
Lee, who is filling the unexpired term of the late commander in chief, Gen.
Jno. B. Gordon. The veterans arose in a body. Hats, handkerchiefs and coats went into the air in all parts of the hall, and cheer after cheer rang out the gallery joining in the applause.

The demonstration continued for several minutes.

Mr. Lee said in part:
I wonder sometimes whether, when the great balances of the universe are poised, and the great judgment of the ancient of days is rendered, whether even when the last human history is written of the war between the states and the slow verdict of remote posterity is taken, the cause we loved will seem as lost as it once seemed to us. It may be that, in the providence of God and the development of humanity, the fearful sacrifices were necessary for the highest good of this nation and of the world. Truly in human experience, without the shedding of blood, there is no redemption.
Rather let us believe that the world is richer and better, purer and greater, for the tragic story of forty years ago and that the shed blood has brought blessing, honor, glory and power, incorruptible treasures of which a brave and noble people can never be deprived.

It is a source of joy to every one of us when we see how prosperous our country has grown. I think we are convinced now that the south is fully on its feet again. In material prosperity, we have not only reached, but surpassed the achievements of our fathers.

I hold no view of southern degeneracy, but I deplore the irreparable loss to my country and the coming generations when those splendid men, the bravest and best the world has ever held, went down in death. But it is a great comfort to know that the south had such men to lose. It was a revelation to the world. It was a revelation to ourselves.

As the close of our days draw near, and the work of up-building our country passes into younger and stronger hands, let us make it our mission to tell the story. Do not let our children and grand children forget the cause for which we suffered. Tell it not in anger; tell it not in grief; tell it not in revenge; tell it proudly as fit soldiers. There is no shame in the history. Dwell on the gallant deeds, the pure motives, the unselfish sacrifices.
Toll of the hardships endured, the battles fought, the men who bravely lived, the men who nobly died. Your dear comrades shall live again in your words.

The cause in which the blood was shed will never be lost to us, and the love we gave it will not die till the last gray jacket is folded, and the last gray head is buried beneath the sod.

Mr. McKill in addressing the veterans said:

There are two unique features which must arrest the attention of every observer of this scene today. The first is the fact that all this pagantry, all this enthusiasm, is a tribute to a lost cause. The second is the fact we as semble under the stars and stripes (the victorious banner) and pay our reverent homage to the conquered one.
A stranger coming into our midst and observing this vast assemblage might suppose that we met here to celebrate the foundation of a state or to acclaim the triumph of armies, or to exult in the victory of a great cause. But not so. Our new republic sank forty years ago to rise no more; our armies were defeated; our banner went down in blood. What then? Are we here to indulge in vain regrets? To lament over our defeat? Or to conspire for the re-establishment of our fallen cause? Not so. The love and loyalty which we give to the lost cause, and to the defeated banner, its demonstration of the deep hold that cause had upon the hearts of the southern people, and of the absolute sincerity and of the complete devotion with which they supported it; but it is no evidence of unmanly and fruitless reping over defeat, nor of any lurking disloyalty to the union in which now, thank God, the southern states have equal rights and privileges with all the other states of our broad land.

We accepted the result of the war in good faith. We abide the arbitrament of the sword. We subscribe as sincerely as the men who fought against us to the sentiment, "one flag, one country, one constitution, one destiny." This is now for us an indissoluble union of indestructible states.
We are loyal to that starry banner.
Strange as it may seem to one who does not understand our people; inconsistent and incomprehensible as it may appear, we salute your starry banner—the banner of the stars and stripes—it is as the symbol of our reunited country, and at the same moment that we do homage to the memory to the stars and bars. There is in our hearts a double loyalty today, a loyalty to the present, and a loyalty to the dear, dead past. We still love our old battle flag with the southern cross upon its tattered folds. We have wrapped it around our hearts; we have enshrined it in the sacred ark of our love; and we will honor it and cheer-ish it ever more—not now as a political swindle, but as the concreted emblem of an heroic epoch; as the sacred memento of a day that is dead; as the embodiment of memories that will be tender and holy as long as life shall last. The people that forgets its heroic dead is already dying at the heart; and we believe it will make for the strength and the glory of the United States if the sentiments that animate us today shall be perpetuated generation after generation.

We thank God that today the sun shines upon a truly reunited country.
Sectionalism is dead and buried.
A great destiny opens before America. The God of nations has given her possibilities of power and usefulness among the people of the globe that are almost boundless. We of the south claim our part in this great destiny of America. Eagerly and joyfully we accept our share in the responsibilities of the future. In the strenuous conflicts, in the conquests, in the glory of the future of our country. We are Americans and nothing that pertains to the honor, to the welfare, to the glory of America is or shall be foreign to us. What the south did in the Spanish-American war is an earnest of what she will do in the future toward working out the destiny of the great republic.

ATCHISON GLOBE SIGHTS.

It is easy to "make fun" of people.
We all promise more than we can perform.

Consider the other side. You may be unreasonable.

Every matador claims to be a favorite of the King of Spain.

Don't forget that you are not as clever as you think you are.

Preachers and passenger brakemen should never complain of hard work.

It is so easy to see what should be done; but only a few are able to do it.

Some days we feel as though every man in town is looking for us, with a kick.

What fine days there are for fishing when a man can't get away from his work!

One man willing to do things, is worth a million willing to suggest things.

When a man is ornery he can't fool people by attempting to look busy and hurried.

Ever remark how timidly and hesitatingly a bald headed man takes off his hat?

If you want to hold a girl's hand, claim to be a palmist. She'll never catch on.

If a man is entirely well he ought to get hungry enough by 5 p. m. to eat a blind robin.

When a man gets punished for wrong doing, he usually claims he was so innocent bystander.

When a man gets older, his coat shortens in the back, but a woman's skirts get shorter in front.

We wonder if this "Awakening of Love," met in music, poetry and art, means "Love Come to Its Senses."

If a woman abuses her own sex, she is denounced, and if she stands up for them, she is called an equal suffragist.

The men dislike a man who has pretty pink cheeks, as much as their wives dislike a man whose nose is red.

A man is a mean husband if he will let his wife work herself to death putting up sandy, gritty gooseberries for him.

The worst thing about gossip is, you hear bad stories on good women, and know them to be false. No one recapes.

We suppose that when the angels want to dress up and look pretty, they tie a piece of blue sky around their waists.

Though this is a dairy country, every one watches jealously when the

Guilty, Was Plea of Patterson

Woman Today

When Brought Before the Court

In Answer to Finding of the Grand Jury, Which Indicted Her.

Proceedings Were Brief and Not a Word Was Spoken by the Prisoner, Who Nodded and Smiled at Friends.

New York, June 14.—Mrs. Nan Patterson, the former actress against whom an indictment for murder in the first degree in connection with the death of bookmaker Caspar Young, was returned by the grand jury yesterday, today entered a plea of not guilty before Judge Newburger, in the court of general sessions. The plea was made with leave to withdraw by next Friday, and in the meantime her counsel will serve notice on the district attorney that he will move to inspect the minutes of the grand jury.

The proceedings in court were very brief, occupying hardly more than two minutes, and not one word was spoken by the prisoner.

Attired in deep mourning with a heavy black veil which she was not compelled to raise, Mrs. Patterson entered the court room with her father, Miss Martha McLaughlin, a friend and her counsel. Just before the clerk called the case. With a jaunty air, she walked up the aisle to the bar and when asked to plead to the indictment, she turned to Mr. Lavy, her attorney, who said:

"The defendant pleads not guilty, with leave to withdraw Friday."

"That is a practice I don't approve of," the court replied, "but I will give you until Friday in which to plead."

This ended the formal arraignment and the prisoner was at once taken back to the oomb. As she was lead from the court room, she bowed and smiled toward her father and friends.

Phillies Made a Sudden Rally in Last Half of the Eighth

And When the Curtain Fell They Had the Reds Down and Out to Tune of Six to Four—Ewing May Join Quakers.

Long Bob Ewing, the Anglaise country giant, who has been a Red slabbman for two years, and who, by the way, is a member of Lima Lodge of Elks, is being talked of as an available addition to the Philadelphia National League team. The Reds are overstocked with twirlers and Ewing not being rated in the class with Hahn, Harper and Sutthoff by the management of the Cincinnati team, President Herrman has given consent to negotiations for the transfer of "Long Bob" to the Quaker team.

With a sudden rally in the second half of the eighth inning yesterday, the Phillies turned defeat into victory and left the field in the Quaker town with the satisfaction of having pulled the Reds down into third place.

BLOOD

Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I ignore and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the laws of health but with the chance of cure. I did not heed the warnings of nature, and I am now a prostrate woman. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health through my body. Since I have been well I have been more careful, and I have also advised a number of my friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they have never had reason to be sorry. Yours very truly, MRS. MAY FAIRBANKS, 216 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn." Veterans Start for Tiffin

To Be Present

At the State Encampment of G. A. R.,

And Work for the Election of Col. Moulton as Department Commander.

Members of Post and W. R. C. Leave Over the C. H. & D. in Special Cars. Election of Officers Thursday.

Enthusiastic in the support of Col. B. M. Moulton's candidacy for the office of commander of the department of Ohio, about sixty members of Mart Armstrong Post No. 202, G. A. R. accompanied by about fifteen members of the Women's Relief Corps, departed at noon today to attend the state encampment of the organization which is being held at Tiffin. The Lima delegation boarded two profusely decorated special cars that were attached to the north bound passenger train No. 6, of the C. H. & D., which left here at 12 o'clock. A third coach was coupled onto the train for the accommodation of other veterans to be picked up en route. At West Cairo, the Larue drum corps, of father and three sons, and a number of other veterans joined the Lima delegation and at Deshler, the special cars were transferred to the B. & O. road to be taken on to Tiffin. The Limaites departed with the hope that they will succeed in their efforts to secure the election of Col. Moulton as department commander. This is the third campaign that Mr. Moulton has made for the election and in each contest he finished with more friends than he entered with. C. C. Dewstoe, of Cleveland, and Amos Hoffmann, of Wellington, are also candidates and the race between Col.

Moulton and Mr. Dewstoe is becoming a close one.

The encampment was formally opened at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. The annual parade will be held tomorrow and the election will occur Thursday morning.

Among those of the Lima delegation who left today were: Dr. S. A. Baator, Capt. O. H. Hollister, Captain F. D. Louthan, Major A. M. Dildie, J. W. Sullivan, J. W. Crum, H. W. Marshall, E. F. Davis, H. H. Heman, M. K. Hitchcock, W. Truesdale and G. W. Welschmire.

An artistic tea booth will be an attractive feature at the lawn fete. Tea will be served by maidens in Japanese costumes at Baxter Place, June 22.

HER LIFE IS SAVED FOR TWENTY-ONE DAYS.

Trenton, N. J., June 14.—Acting Governor Wakelee today signed a reprieve which for 21 days, at least, will save Mrs. Anna Valentina, of Lodi, from the gallows. The granting reprieve followed an appeal for the condemned woman on the part of a delegation of her countrymen and others.

BARNEY GOT TEN.

Cleveland, June 14.—Barney Oldfield, the widely known automobile driver was today fined $10 and costs at the central police court for running his machine 35 miles an hour through the streets of the city. Oldfield's only excuse was that he did not realize he was running so rapidly.

LOTS

Of Rumors Are in the Air

But the Things

To be Done May Never be Done at All.

Boys With the C. H. & D. Have Their Heads Together Over Change

And Some of Them Expect to See Men in High Places Begging to Have Their Resignations Accepted.

"Yes, it looks as though we are going to answer to the beck and call of a new official force," was the reply of a C. H. & D. employe who holds a semi-official position with the company, when the subject of the sale of the road was broached.

"Will there be changes? Yes, more than likely, but no one is able to tell where, when or how, at this early period. Naturally, several in high positions will take a tumble, but knowing that the fall is coming may lighten the blow by taking the resignation leap."

"Just what will be the effect in Lima is hard to say. It may be better for the city and it may be worse. The C. H. & D. has several times talked of making the division point at Sidney, which is at the highest altitude on the line, and is half way between Toledo and Cincinnati. But even if that were done, it would not likely interfere with the shops here, for while they are antediluvian and need much improvement to bring them up to the standard, they are established and are not likely to be changed. The old round house has stood since the road was built and is clear out of date, but it is a question whether a new one will ever take its place.

"I have heard of one railroad man who was formerly a resident of Lima, who may be raised to a high position under the new organization, but it is not necessary to mention names, as everything connected with the now much talked of deal is still but rumor unconfirmed. Wait till the blow comes and then watch."

Beginning with next Sunday, the Erie will put on the first world's fair train, having formed an arrangement with the Big Four, which will make the transfer at Marion, Ind.

Not So Much Gold.

Those who are left in the employe of the local railroad lines are watching for the pay car or the monthly checks that are now about due. The Erie paid today and saved several thousand dollars over last month. The C. H. & D. pay car will arrive tomorrow, but there are several hundred old names through which the pencil has been drawn.

Another Cut. The Erie has announced another cut of ten per cent in its force at work in the shops, and the reduction will be a sweeping one, affecting every shop along the main line and divisions.

New Schedule. Next Sunday, the Erie railroad will introduce a new schedule and will establish two through trains east and west between Buffalo and Chicago. The west bound, No. 9, leaves Lima at 1:52 a. m., and No. 48 east bound at 12:33 a. m. The other trains leave as follows: The odd numbers west and even numbers east: No. 21, 8:41 a. m.; No. 2, 11:35 a. m.; No. 13, 4:36 p. m.; No. 7, 12:55 a. m.; No. 8, 4:05 a. m.; No. 22, 8:21 a. m.; No. 4, 5:35 a. m.

Last Link. Pittsburg, June 14.—The last link connecting the Pittsburg terminal of the Wabash railroad with the entire Wabash system was completed yesterday, when the local end of the road was connected with the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad at Mingo Junction. President Jos. Ramsey, Jr., of the Wabash railroad, is expected to come to Pittsburg, this week and will come in over the line. His will be the first through train to be run over the tracks. The road will be opened June 19th.

Pointer For Bartholomew. Norwalk, O., June 14.—The actual work of grading for the Sandusky, Norwalk and Mansfield electric railroad was begun yesterday morning at Beers Corners, 3 miles south of this city in Bronson township. This is the new road which is to be built from Norwalk via North Fairfield, Steuben and Chicago Junction to Plymouth, there to connect with an extension of the Mansfield-Shelby line.

Rival Fishermen. Ben Hill who drives the United States Express wagon and O. H. O'Dell, freight agent of the C. H. & D., have a dispute as to who has caught the largest bass in McCullough's lake. Mr. O'Dell recently caught one that weighed 5 1/2 pounds, and now comes Hill with a capture last Saturday which he says tipped the beam at exactly six pounds. O'Dell claims that Hill drove a board in it to widen it out and add the extra-quarter ounce. Those who saw Hill hook the big fellow, say he waded into the lake waist deep, chucked the bass under his arm and ran 150 yards from the shore before he laid it down on the grass.

For Paving of Jackson Street Awarded

T. J. Mulligan Secures Contract For Logan Block.

Sinking Fund Trustees Will Not Interfere Because City's Portion of the Expense Is In the Fund.

The board of public service has awarded the contract for the paving of Jackson street, from Eureka to Kibby street, to T. J. Mulligan at his bid which aggregates $11,268.59 and the sinking fund trustees will permit the issue of bonds for this improvement for the reason that the city's portion of the cost, about $700, is certified by the city auditor as being on hand in the special street improvement fund.

In the event that the council shall attempt to legislate over the mayor's veto for the proposed improvement of north West street and north Elizabeth streets, however, or attempt to proceed with legislation for the proposed improvement of south Pine street, at this time, the sinking fund trustees will refuse to sign an approval of the bonds, on account of the present extent of the city's bonded indebtedness.

There were four bidders for the Jackson street work, and all were local contractors—T. J. Mulligan, Valentine Hall, Chris Geiger and Blodgett & Hardin. Mr. Mulligan's bid was the lowest.

A remonstrance against the proposed improvement of south Pine street, alleging that the petition for that improvement was circulated in the interest of certain contractors, has been circulated among the property owners of that street.
